LAMBS

The LAMBS ministry has been distributing weekend meal bags to students in Ware County Schools for the last 16 years. Julie Stewart, while teaching at Wacona, saw a need with her students and did something about it. Julie created a way to get much needed food into student's backpacks to address the food insecurity on weekends. These food bags insured that students would have a meal until they made it back to school on Monday. Julie was driven by her servant heart to create this ministry that has benefited so many of our students. Truly the hands and feet of Jesus.

LAMBS is now packing and delivering over 230 meals a week for Ware County School students. Our food for the program is sourced through Second Harvest and donations. LAMBS is financially supported through your donations as this ministry is not part of the church budget. Your prayers and support for this ministry are appreciated. For more information or if you would like to volunteer, contact Kim Gibson at 912-590-5993.
